

BATTLE OF ATLANTA

CORPORATE AND CUSTOMER EVENT TOUR

This unique tour makes your corporate and customer events memorable and fun!

Participants will learn about Atlanta's founding and its important role during the Civil War. We travel by historic sites, state markers and monuments that tell the story of the July 22, 1864, Battle of Atlanta that helped win the Civil War for the Union.

If needed, we can tie in a theme to align to your meeting such leadership, teamwork, communication or goal setting.

Showcasing the area's rich history and its historic neighborhoods, you will not soon forget this one-of-a-kind event.

SELECT: YOU CAN CHOOSE OUR 2.5 TO 3 HOUR TOUR (BELOW), OR CUSTOMIZE YOUR OWN.

4 P.M. – 4:30 P.M. → THE GLENN HOTEL'S SKYLounge

- Overview of the battle with descriptions of key participants
- If requested, tie into group's theme or focus

4:30 P.M. – 6 P.M. → LUXURY VAN

- Thrasherville Marker (Atlanta's Founding)
- Sites of Union and Confederate Front Lines
- Marker: Historic Troop Hurt House
- Gen. Hood's H.Q and Oakland Cemetery

6 P.M. THE REPUBLIC SOCIAL HOUSE (GRANT PARK)

- Discuss battle aftermath

7 P.M. RETURN TO GLENN HOTEL

- Group free to do dinner following tour

GUIDE:

Matt Spaulding is a 24-year veteran of the communications industry. He is the president of Spaulding

Communications, an instructor of business communication at Georgia State University and a former consulting fellow to Battlefield Leadership. He has led participants on specialized "urban battlefield tours" in Atlanta, Chattanooga and at Trenton/Princeton, N.J.

PRAISE FOR MATT SPAULDING'S HISTORY TOURS:

"A fantastic tour with just the right amount of fun and history."

"One of the absolute best historical tours I have ever taken."

TO BOOK A TOUR, CUSTOMIZE A TOUR OR FOR QUESTIONS, CONTACT MATT SPAULDING
AT 404-270-1010 OR MATTS@SPAULDINGCOMMUNICATIONS.COM

www.spauldingcommunications.com • 404.270.1010 Copyright 2016. All rights reserved.

spauldingcommunications

